Currently pursuing an MSc in Artificial Intelligence at Northumbria University, London.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Passionate and results-driven Senior Android and Flutter Developer with 6+ years of experience building high-performance, consumer-facing, cross-platform mobile applications. Expert in Kotlin and Android SDK fundamentals, with hands-on experience in Jetpack Compose, MVVM/BLoC architecture, and Coroutines for concurrency and multithreading. Skilled in integrating RESTful APIs, Firebase, local databases (SQLite, Room, Hive), and monetisation features including in-app purchases and subscription flows. Experienced working in large, modular codebases and applying strong object-oriented design and design-pattern principles to deliver maintainable, scalable solutions. Comfortable leveraging AI-powered development tools (e.g. Claude Code) to accelerate delivery. Proven track record leading and collaborating with cross-functional teams, mentoring developers, and driving projects from planning through deployment with a strong focus on performance optimisation and product-driven iteration.
